LOCAL NEWS.

Brief Mention.

High water to-day at 1:14 p. m.

Buy a new house—R. E. Baldwin.

The O. U. A. M. of Southington dedicated the graves of the soldier dead there Sunday.

See the Ontario bicycles, hand-me-down ever put on the market at N. Stearns's, 775 Chapel Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Beach, Mrs. P. H. Stevens and Mrs. L. B. Beach of Bristol will occupy a cottage at Sachem's Head about June 1.

A May festival under the auspices of the Children of Mary society of St. Lawrence church opened in town hall, West Haven, last evening. It will continue this and to-morrow evenings.

The work of fitting up Banquet hall with bowling alleys for the New Haven Bowling and Tennis club has been begun. The alleys are being built by the Narragansett Machine company.

There was recorded in the town clerk's office yesterday a suit brought by Eli C. Gray of Brooklyn, N. Y., against Reuben Gray and wife to recover a $2,000 note. Property on Chapel street was attached.

Cards are out announcing the approaching wedding of Miss Catherine E. McKee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McKee of 14 Wolcott street, to James P. O'Leary of New Britain, which is to take place at the home of the bride's parents June 4.

C. W. Myers of Forestville, who has been an employee in the edge tool branch of the Peck, Stow & Wilcox factory in Southington for six or eight years, was killed instantly by falling between the cars while boarding a train at Forestville yesterday morning. One leg was cut off and his skull was fractured.

The Monetary Trust, organized under the law of the state of New York, adds clients in the profitable use of money. The law prevents it from owning securities, and it cannot do business on its own account. Investors are invited to communicate with its president, Francis D. Carley, 50 Broadway, New York. See financial adv.

The sudden rise of New York and New Haven stock, for which 211 is bid, here yesterday morning, is accounted for in local banking circles partly by the large increase in freight earnings and partly by the common expectation that the time for a new issue of stock and debentures draws near. Through freight traffic has been so large upon the road that business has in some cases had to be refused. The competition of the electric roads so far as this state is concerned also proves to be trifling, and the defeat of the threatened parallel in the state legislature is another factor in the bullish feeling. The debentures were quoted here yesterday at 144 bid and 145 asked.

A Communication.

Much has been said against the Calvary Baptist Industrial home being located on Chapel street, between Union and Olive streets. People in that section object strongly to the location, regarding the institution as a nuisance. The question may be asked, Is there not already, and has there not for a long time been, a much more disgraceful nuisance in that section? And not one in that law-abiding neighborhood has uttered a word of complaint. We would advise that it is well to have a tramp house near by where the tramps are made. Spread on good Christian people; you house will soon be filled. (Signed) LOOK AROUND.

A Lawn Party.

Invitations have been extended by Mrs. Henry Farnam and Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Farnam to a lawn party to be given to-morrow, May 29, at their residence, No. 43 Hillhouse avenue, from 4:30 to 6:30 p. m., in honor of the members of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections.

Painted the Box Blue.

Postmaster Beach has had a letter box placed on the campus on Old chapel. Like all boxes within a certain radius, it was painted red, but the students would not tolerate Harvard's color on the grounds and Sunday night the box was completely smeared with blue paint.

HAMDEN'S SCHOOL TROUBLES

AN INJUNCTION GRANTED BY JUDGE HOTCHKISS YESTERDAY.

Applicants For Admission to the Hamden C. Goodwin's Failure—Three Thousand Dollar Attachment—Other Interesting Court News.

In the common pleas court late yesterday afternoon, on motion of Attorney Lucius P. Deming, Judge Hotchkiss granted an injunction restraining the selectmen of the town of Hamden. The complainant is Edward Davis of that town, and he alleges in his complaint that the school meeting held in Hamden October 1, 1894, was not legally conducted and that the ballots were invalid.

The meeting was held to vote for a consolidation of the thirteen school districts. The claim is made by Davis that this project will result in the abandonment of some school houses and the building of several new ones, thus burdening the taxpayers with needless and illegal expense. He therefore asked for an injunction restraining the selectmen from calling a meeting for the election of a school committee to consolidate the thirteen districts.

Judge Hotchkiss granted a temporary injunction until the third Monday in June, when both parties in interest will be heard in reference to the matter.

The following named have filed notice of their intention to apply for examination for admission to the bar in this county, viz.:

Robert Adair, Joseph Anderson, Jr., Thomas H. Breese, Frank J. Brown, Wendell G. Brownson, Samuel J. Bryant, Michael J. Byrne, Edward M. Burke, Jeremiah J. Caporale, Terrence P. Carmody, Thomas F. Pickett, Stuart E. Pierson, Henry S. Sanford, Jr., Edward L. Seery, Benjamin S. Slade, Edwin S. Thomas, Edward H. Tracy, Howard C. Webb and Allyn B. Wilmot.

A meeting of the bar of this county to take action upon such applications will be held on Friday, May 31, 1895, at 10 a. m.

Henry C. Goodwin, the fruit dealer at 685 Chapel street made a voluntary assignment in the probate court through his attorney, James Bishop, yesterday.

A. C. Hurlburt is named as trustee and a hearing on his appointment will take place next Monday. Goodwin's liabilities are placed at about $5,000, with assets of a much less figure. He attributes his failure to the fact that he was burned out in the City market fire last July and had no insurance on his stock.

An attachment was yesterday placed upon property on Chapel street, near East, belonging to Reuben C. Gray and his wife, Anna, for $3,000 by Eli C. Gray of Brooklyn, N. Y., for the recovery of a note for $3,000.

An Enormous Enterprise.

It is distinctly a pleasure to announce the advent of Colonel W. F. Cody, "Buffalo Bill," at the head of that remarkable and unique organization, the Wild West. It is now on tour in America for the first time in many years, and contains many novel features as the result of its great journeyings in foreign lands.

The graphic and photographically accurate pictures of the life that was led on the plains by the Indians, cowboys and scouts in the early days of the republic can never be duplicated after Colonel Cody shall retire. These are living pictures, stories in action by the living heroes of the days of yore and their Indian adversaries now fast vanishing from the scene of life's combat. These, too, are now rivalled in educational value by the addition of a genuine equitation convention showing in the real persons of the actors the world's rough riders. There are representatives from the great standing armies of Europe, the English, Irish, French, German and Russian heavy and light branches of the cavalry service, and with these are the Arab, the Tartar, the Gypsy and the Indian, nature's horsemen par excellence.

The Wild West will be here on Friday and Saturday afternoon and evenings of this week. The parade will be as given in yesterday's "Journal and Courier."

THE FOOT GUARDS.

Their Coming Grand Entertainment.

There has already been a very large sale of tickets for the Governor's Foot Guard exhibition on June 6, 7 and 8.

The entertainment which is to proceed the tableaux will be given by local talent. The Foot Guard have added to their muster role the Yale band club, who will open the entertainment with several of their delightful numbers.

Another interesting feature of the production will be the burlesque quadrille. The incidental music for the national tableaux will be composed by Prof. Rosetter of New York, and will be rendered by the Foot Guard's own band.

The list of patrons of the entertainment to be given by the Second Company Governor's Foot Guard on June 6, 7 and 8, are as follows:

Tan Shoes.

Now is the time to buy a pair of Hanan-Dillon tan shoes. They are cool, neat and stylish, and we fit any ordinary foot as perfectly as the best custom made order. We want to speak specially of fit. Making as we do a specialty of men's shoes we have every shape, width and size. Traveling men come to us daily, know exactly size, width and shape they wear, and often assure us that they prefer our shoes for comfort and wear to any custom made shoe they ever had. A well made, well shaped, perfect fitting shoe is a luxury; you are sure of this when you buy it. The Hanan-Dillon Shoe company.

He Did It at Cutler's.

On Saturday, 25th inst., a man went to Cutler's art store and for $107 bought thirteen pictures that at regular prices were worth over $400.

Why did Cutler sell them so cheap?

Firstly, because he must have much money with which to buy goods in Europe this summer; and, secondly, because when pictures have been framed long enough they must be sold at some price. There are hundreds of bargains awaiting the wise. Cutler's metal lamps, china, fancy glass and all sorts of bric-a-brac are selling at great discounts. A grand chance to buy pictures for seashore and country houses is now offered.
